PROFILE

- 3 years of React, Next.js and Expo in production – from trainee to senior at Horizon Alpha, most recently building two product areas of Phase6's teacher tool from the ground up – the entry point to a platform with 1 million users.
- Decisions from data rather than gut feeling: self-built conversion funnels in Amplitude that put numbers on Phase6's two biggest drop-off points.
- Took two of my own iOS apps from idea to monetisation – the more successful one with over 12,000 sign-ups.

- Built Enhanced Classes as a team of two in 5 months – teachers manage classes and assign tests directly instead of sending every pupil an individual link. Biggest release of the year.
- Built the Teacher Area (phase-6.de/schule) from scratch in Astro in 4 months – Lighthouse 96 for performance and 96 for accessibility (screen-reader support under the German Accessibility Act), 100 each for best practices and SEO.
- Proposed and built the Amplitude funnels for the anonymous test-creation flow in Phase6's teacher tool – the flow that feeds pupils into the app with its 1 million users – and found the one screen where teachers gave up; the redesign with our UI/UX designer, implemented in an afternoon, took registrations from 10% to 18%.
- Code reviews, database design and over 8 user interviews with teachers; introduced E2E tests in the GitLab pipeline and Sentry.
